Düsseldorf offers plenty of ways to round off a successful day at the trade fair. Whether you're looking for a traditional German-style evening at one of the many breweries or a more out-of-the-ordinary experience at any of the countless other venues, 'the longest bar in the world' welcomes all the city's guests.

Düsseldorf is such a diverse place that there is something for all tastes – from the typical Altbier, mustard-crust roast and fine Turkish cuisine to champagne and sushi.

But that's not all. North Rhine-Westphalia's capital offers a wealth of shopping and culture as well. The sophisticated Media Harbour with its architectural gems is just as big an attraction as the art museums and the world-famous shoppers' paradise, the Königsallee.
